Beautiful Classical design. These super fine quality area rugs with their timeless beauty will last for generations.

SHIRAZ Carpet Properties:

Visibility: SHIRAZ rugs and carpets usually have nomadic patterns with pole medallions or small medallions scattered all over the carpet. They are great choices for wooden floors. Due to the proximity of the QASHQAI tribe, SHIRAZ rugs and carpets bear some similarity to those of the QASHQAI.

Quality: SHIRAZ rugs and carpets are of good quality. They are durable and are great for places that people walk often. Remember, tribal rugs and carpets are much stronger than city rugs.

Size & Shapes: SHIRAZ rugs and carpets come in different sizes, but the majority of them are mid-size (4 x 6 to 8 x 10 feet). It is very hard to find large size (10 x 18 feet).

Color: Strong red and brown is the main indicator of SHIRAZ rugs and carpets. Other colors such as soft green and khaki are found in newer ones.

Texture: SHIRAZ rugs and carpets usually are thick and do not have very tight pile.

Foundation: Warps is mostly wefts; weft is either cotton or wool.

Knots: SHIRAZ rugs and carpets are usually flat woven. The quality of the carpet depends upon the number of knots, which varies, but averages from around 120KPSI (30 RAJ).

Price: SHIRAZ carpets are fine and beautiful.Â Â

Where is SHIRAZ?

SHIRAZ

The city of SHIRAZ is the capital of Fars province and is located 919 km(571 Miles) south of TEHRAN. SHIRAZ enjoys a temperate climate. The region was especially important historically. It was mentioned in many Ilamian epigraphs discovered at Perspolis.

The memorial tombs of the two great Persian poets, Sadi and Hafiz, are inside the city, and the memorial tomb of the poet Khoaju is located near the city gate. The long history of this city has left many historical and cultural remains alongside views of natural beauty making SHIRAZ a tourist destination.
